8. Post your score: score, date, type, holes, course, and tees. Shown in Figure 7

Away Score:

If it is a score that was not played at your home course make sure to select "Away" and choose an Arizona course from the drop down menu.

Away Out-of-State Score:

If it was an out of state course, choose the first option on the drop down menu - "Non-AWGA Course or Unrated Tees" where you will need to enter the club and course information. Then click "Post Score"

The screenshot shows the AWGA website interface. On the left is a navigation menu with items like 'My eGolfBag', 'Who We Are', 'Member Services', 'Tournaments', 'Rules & Etiquette', 'Handicapping', 'Play Your Best Game', 'Junior Girls', 'Publications', 'AWGA Needs You', 'Courses & Clubs', and 'Archives'. Below the menu are promotional banners for 'Where in the World is Cori Brett?' and 'AWGA on the Radio'. The main content area features the AWGA logo, a 'Champions' banner with five player photos, and the heading 'ARIZONA'S LEADER IN WOMEN'S GOLF'. Below this is the 'My AWGA eGolfBag - Score Posting' form. The form fields are: Player (Abby Goodman 12585287), Score (empty), Date (9/8/2010), Type (radio buttons for 'Away' and 'Tournament'), Holes (radio buttons for '18' and '9'), Course (dropdown menu showing 'Agulla GC'), and Tees (radio buttons for 'Green (71.6/120)' and 'Gold (74.5/128)'). There are 'Cancel' and 'Post Score' buttons at the bottom of the form. A note below the form reads: 'Note: If you did not play an AWGA Course, or played from a mixed or unrated set of tees, please select "Non-AWGA Course or Unrated tees" (first option) from the Course DropDown. You will then be given the option to enter the Course Name, State and Rating/Slope.'
